Student Research Opportunities and Fellowships

USDHHS Office of Minority Health Youth Health Equity Model of Practice Summer Health Equity Fellowship - The Youth Health Equity Model of Practice (YHEMOP) Summer 2018 Health Equity Fellow application is now available. APHA will be a host site for this fellowship, which will be housed in the Policy Center. The project will focus exploring the health impacts of gentrification, geographic segregation and displacement. Application Due Date: February 19, 2018. <https://www.minorityhealth.hhs.gov/YHEMOP/index.html>

RWJF Culture of Health Leaders - This Culture of Health Leaders three-year program will develop a large group of leaders from diverse sectors (e.g., for-profit/business, government, nonprofit, social enterprise) to work with organizations, communities, health systems, and policymakers to build a Culture of Health in America. Within each of these sectors, leaders focused on technology, education, housing, transportation, business, the arts, and many other disciplines and focus areas play key roles in building a Culture of Health. We welcome applications from individuals who are highly motivated and ready to lead and collaborate within and across sectors. Application Due Date: February 21, 2018. https://www.rwjf.org/en/library/funding-opportunities/2018/culture-of-health-leaders.html?rid=0034400001rmGidAAE&et_cid=1129436

NIJ Graduate Research Fellowship (GRF) Program in Social and Behavioral Sciences – The program is open to doctoral students in all social and behavioral science disciplines. This program provides awards to accredited academic institutions to support graduate research leading to doctoral degrees in areas that are relevant to ensuring public safety, preventing and controlling crime, and ensuring the effective administration of criminal justice in the United States. Of particular interest is research on issues deemed critical by the U.S. Department of Justice: violent crime reduction, enhancing investigations and prosecutions, protecting police officers and other public safety personnel, combating the opioid epidemic, victimization, and addressing illegal immigration. Applications Due: March 12, 2018.<https://nij.gov/funding/Documents/solicitations/NIJ-2018-13640.pdf>
